Compliance with U.S. Export Regulations

Globalstar's products and services are subject to the U.S. Export Administration Regulations https://www.bis.doc.gov/index.php/regulations/export-administration-regulations-ear enforced by the U.S. Bureau of Industry and Security https://www.bis.doc.gov, as well as regulations enforced by the U.S. Office of Foreign Assets Control https://www.treasury.gov/about/organizational-structure/offices/Pages/Office-of-Foreign-Assets-Control.aspx. It is Globalstar's policy to comply fully with these requirements, as well as requirements under the export and import laws and regulations of other countries. Without limitation, all parties acquiring Globalstar products and services are responsible for obtaining all licenses or other approvals from the U.S. Government necessary for acquiring, exporting, reselling, reexporting or otherwise transferring Globalstar products and services. This includes restrictions and prohibitions against any transfer to (1) anyone on the U.S. Government’s Consolidated Screening List https://build.export.gov/main/ecr/eg_main_023148, any country subject to U.S. economic sanctions (currently Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, Syria, and the Crimea region of Ukraine), or any end use involving the development, production, or use of nuclear power, missiles, or chemical or biological weapons.
